

From: John Watts

Town: Ellington

Testimony:

No way should we shoulder this private endeavor. This whole plan is a financial disaster in the making and I am getting sick and tired of being blackmailed by all the sport teams that "can't survive with public support"

The public better believe that parking will not be cheap, and the distance to walk is unacceptable John Watts